

Executive Board Member

Carolina P. Danao is life member of WCCI. Currently, she is the Vice President of Academic Affairs at Global City Innovative College, Taguig, Philippines. She is the president of Teachers Organization of the Philippines; actively coordinating writing projects for Phoenix Publishing House, and presently revising my workbook series in Social Studies and in Filipino Language. She is also teaching a couple of subjects for the graduate students of the Polytechnic University of the Philippines. She has been the President of WCCI Philippine Chapter for two consecutive years (2004-2006). She directed a successful WCCI 12th World Conference in Education held at Manila Hotel, Manila, Philippines in August 2006.

Her goal for the present WCCI leadership: she suggests to get in touch with all chapter members to do some comparative analyses of their country's program for promotion of the Culture of Peace. She is hoping to yield a concrete output through the joint efforts among chapters with the WCCI International.
